Weir

Answer: I wrote Why Our Health Matters because I care very much about health, about my profession, and about my country. I would like to see people become informed, and upset and angry with the facts about health care in America. I want them to understand how much we are paying and how little we are getting.

Why Your Health Matters to Me. By Nicole Scheafbauer. Posted January 3, 2020. In Blog. 0 . The other day I was listening to Simon Sinek on YouTube talk about your “why” when it comes to your business. Every business should have a “why.” He also went on to say that you need to be true and authentic with your business. ...
